Asadov Muhammad Utkir ugli

ANNOTATION: In the article, the main state policy on youth in the conditions of the new Uzbekistan the directions are analyzed. Raising legal culture in society its role in youth education is revealed. Perfect man in the works of thinkers particular attention is paid to the historical-philosophical interpretation of his idea.

Key words: New Uzbekistan, State Youth Policy, talented youth, spiritual perfection, the third Renaissance.

ITRODUCTION: State policy on youth in the conditions of new Uzbekistan independent in youth activity refers to socio-spiritual qualities corresponding to the new era, in particular, understanding of the national identity, which is important in the context of globalization forms the theoretical-methodological and practical basis. His on this line the essence of Doctor of political science S.A. State of youth of zhurayev it is revealed in the definition of his politics: "youth politics is physically and mentally healthy preservation, reproduction, development of the national-ethnic gene pool, its potential due to improving the level of intellectualization, socialization and to increase mobility, every young person is an active member of society, a harmoniously developed person as socio-economic aimed at stimulating maturation processes, targeted towards the creation of a set of political-legal, cultural-spiritual conditions the state and society that took direction, parties and movements separately political the way"

Raising the legal culture of youth, building a Democratic state and increase their activity in the processes of development of civil society; high a spiritual, independent thinker, a strict life position, a broad worldview and to educate patriotic youth with deep knowledge, they have different formation of immunity to ideological threats; social protection of youth suitable conditions for making, thorough mastery of modern professions creation, their employment and involvement in entrepreneurship; talented youth aimed at realizing its support, creative and intellectual potential systematic organization of work; routine of youth with physical education and sports wide involvement in activities, promotion of a healthy lifestyle among young people; the commission of offenses and crimes between minors and young people Prevention; media in the upbringing of a harmonious generation and effective use of modern information and communication technologies youth the main directions of its policy are.

Public policy on the issue of identification of talented young people, their upbringing the fact that it has been raised to the level allows us to accumulate a worthwhile experience if we take an example in our country gave. At this point, it is worth noting that in the search for talented young people and in the implementation of work aimed at their application, one with state organizations in addition, non-governmental organizations operating in our country actively participate are doing. For example, one of the main directions of State Youth Policy the focus on supporting the talents and abilities of young people is particularly, it is important. It should be noted that Education, Science, Technology, Information Technology, talented and talented young people in the fields of culture, art, sports, entrepreneurship encouraging, supporting their various healthy initiatives the functions of this organization make it one of the urgent tasks in this direction marked.

society influence. Improving the living conditions of the population, agreeing with life the achievement of living is important in the development of modern statehood today is an indicator.

Studying the issue of youth personality society, social relations, nationalities and is closely related to states, culture and civilizations. Because the issue of youth, firstly, has existed since the emergence of civilization, and all at the stages of historical development, burning with them comes. Second, contemplation all philosophers, thinkers, statesmen, poets and writers in history have children, who have stated their views on the issue of youth.

In the old Arabian Peninsula until the 7th century – in the "johiliya period"[6], even if the birth of a girl is a sign of misfortune for the father, the birth of a boy esa is shown as a sign of special happiness. The story goes that Umar ibn alkhattob () was the son of an architect.a.) professed the following: "two things pre-Muslim I remember I cry remembering one, I laugh remembering one. To this thing I cry. One day my daughter, jajji my little girl, jigarpora my little girl These own hands I dug a grave with. I dig a pit with my own hands for my daughter as long as I was, he would rub the dust splashing on my beard with jajji's hands. I always cry when I remember this. In what dark periods of humanity realizing that he has lived, I refrain from tearfully shedding tears " [7]. Islam she raised her status by showing compassion, affection for women, and her he introduced sacred laws for his happy life. Enforcement of these laws Qur'anic verses and our Prophet (PBUH).a.v.) Were strengthened through their Hadith.

Researcher N.J.Yusupova in her work" women's rights in Islam as noted, there are 309 verses in Karim, the Qur'an on the issue of the woman, of this, 161 verses were revealed in Mecca and 148 verses were revealed in Medina [5].

Perfection in a person is, above all, his thought, thinking and practical activity in the realization of his freedom. In this sense, the great Greek philosopher Sucroth The call to" realize your self " also refers to a person's own lineage, the meaning of life, aimed at understanding the responsibility and commitment of a person to future generations call. The most basic indicator of perfection in any society is a person's in his attitude to goodness, social happiness, humanitarian ideas, as well as it is manifested in their practical activities based on them.

Today, the ideology of most developed countries is universal based on values and democratic principles. Peace and progress in them, the ideas of human rights and freedom, national and religious harmony are superior. This noble ideas based on principles universal interests, century of humanity serves for a bright future with a dream.

CONCLUSION

One of the number of factors that determine the power of the state is undoubtedly the meaning mature, physically healthy, in every possible way is to bring up a competent generation. Shu in a sense, how to educate a healthy generation in our country today it is clear to all of us that it is an important, responsible task. Attention to young people, children, in fact, it is an investment in the future. However, to a strong civil society active participation of our children in building a legal and Democratic state based on, as a full-fledged implementation only through its support, its morale is high, deeply educated, modern-minded, intellectually developed and professional raising boys and girls with training also makes our great future there is no doubt that it will provide.
